Hello, fellow story explorers! Wandering Willie here, your guide to the enchanting world of the reading challenge. Let's dive into how you can collect points and make your reading journey even more exciting!

- 1. Earning Points with Every Story: In our realm of reading, every 15 minutes spent reading earns you one wonderful point. Whether you're alone or in a group, each quarter-hour brings you closer to rewards in our challenge.
- 2. Reading Together: Enjoy reading with friends, family, or any story enthusiast. You can read solo, or listen to someone else weave a tale. The joy of shared reading makes our adventure even more delightful. For every 15 minutes of storytelling, both the storyteller and listeners earn points.
- 3. Honouring Oral Stories: Special visits from community members or Knowledge Keepers are treasures. When they share oral stories, it's not just a learning moment but also a point-earning opportunity. For every 15 minutes of these storytelling sessions, both the storyteller and listeners earn points, celebrating our rich oral traditions together.
- 4. Weekly Check-ins: Remember to update your reading challenge points weekly. Just enter your times on the Northern Reading Program website. It's exciting to see your progress on the leaderboard, showing how far you and your fellow readers have traveled in the world of books.
