

Guideline for Accurate Record-Keeping of Reading Points:

Hello there, fellow readers and explorers of stories! It's Wandering Willie here, excited to share some tips on keeping track of our reading adventures accurately in the SaskPower Northern Reading Program. We're all about celebrating our journey through books and knowledge!

Guide to Tracking Your Reading Adventures:

- 1. Choose Your Tracking Style: Whether you're using our handy reading passports, creative graphs, adorable bookmarks, or your own cool methods like journals, digital apps, or spreadsheets, it's vital to maintain a clear, checkable record of your reading minutes.
- 2. Ensuring Your Minutes Matter: Recording your reading minutes for our fantastic adventure is a great way to confirm your reading times. This could involve getting a nod of approval from a guardian or teacher, especially for our younger book explorers. We aim to include every word and page you journey through as part of your authentic reading adventure!
- 3. Clarity Counts: If it's unclear how much you've read, those minutes might not be counted. We aim to have clarity in everyone's reading time to ensure fairness and accuracy in our program.
- 4. Community Members, You're Invited! Not in a participating school? No worries! If members of the community outside of a participating school wish to contribute to the program, they are welcome to form their own registered groups or participate as registered individuals.. Everyone is welcome in our vibrant reading community!
- 5. Everyone's Contribution Matters: From our avid young readers to our dedicated coordinators, each one of you plays a crucial role in maintaining accurate reading records. Let's collaborate to track our reading discoveries!
- 6. Celebrate Your Reading Journey: Our program celebrates not only the love of reading but also values responsibility and integrity. Let's adhere to these guidelines and take pride in our authentic reading achievements.

By following these guidelines, we ensure the SaskPower Northern Reading Program remains a cherished and meaningful journey for all. I'm excited to see the wonderful worlds our reading will reveal!

Happy Reading and Discovering,

Wandering Willie
